COURSES FROM MASTER IN LAW & ECONOMICS

The programme in Law and Economics is an international programme organised in cooperation with other European Universities. The following courses are taught in Ghent and can be followed by Erasmus students.

Students wishing to take courses from the Law and Economics programme should be aware that classes from this programme run from the first week of January, following the Christmas holiday, until the end of March. Some of these courses will therefore coincide with first semester exams of other master courses and of Erasmus courses.
