| ORGANISATION | A non-profit festival for Northern European culture attached to the department of Fennistics and Scandinavistics of the University of Greifswald, one of the oldest universities in central Europe. |
| LOCATION | Greifswald, GERMANY |
| WHAT WE OFFER | - 10 days full of music, literature, arts and more – from newcomers to international top acts.
- Work in a small, friendly, dedicated team with Northern spirit, in the unique atmosphere of a Hanse city at the shores of the Baltic Sea.
- A broad bandwidth of tasks – organization, artist assistance and support, media and public relations.
- The opportunity to gather experience in virtually every aspect of festival organization. |
| STARTING DATE AND DURATION | - Minimum 60 days of internship
- Starting no later than March 15, 2017 |
| STUDENT PROFILE | - Studies in a culture-related field in the broader sense (Intercultural studies, cultural management, philology and linguistics, fine arts, etc.).
- Interest in Northern European Culture.
- The usual computer and viral medial skills (Office and Web applications, social media).
- Good command in English and at least one Northern European language.
- At least basic active and good passive knowledge in German.
- Flexibility, cooperativeness, readiness to assess necessary tasks. |
| LANGUAGE | English, German, Nordic languages |
| SALARY | NA |
| ERASMUS GRANT | Candidates can apply for an Erasmus+ internship mobility scholarship at their home university. |
| APPLICATION DEADLINE | February 1, 2017 |
| APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS | Please send your applications including CV by e-mail to: nokl@uni-greifswald.de. |
| CONTACT | Benjamin Schulte
Hans-Fallada-Straße 11
17489 Greifswald
GERMANY
E-mail: nokl@uni-greifswald.de
Tel.: +49 3834 863613 |