Ioannina, September 28th, 2018

Dear Partners,

Further to the election of the new Rector of the University of Ioannina, we are pleased to inform you that, as of 1st September 2018 (and with a four-year term), Professor Triantafyllos A.D. Almpanis is the new Rector of the University of Ioannina.

Professor Minas I. Paschopoulos (Full Professor of our Department of Medicine) was elected to the position of Vice Rector for Administrative, Academic Affairs, Student Welfare and International Relations.

Professor Spyros Geogatos (Full Professor of our Department of Medicine) was elected to the position of Vice Rector for Research and Life-long Learning.

Professor Stavros D. Nikolopoulos (Full Professor of our Department of Computer Science and Engineering) was elected to the position of Vice-Rector for Finance, Programming and Development.

The leadership of the University of Ioannina is committed to fully supporting the implementation of academic linkages and strategic networking within or outside Europe. To this end we will invest on a publicity strategy which promotes the University’s international orientation, with the IRO in the front line of this scheme. We take this opportunity to thank you all for choosing the University of Ioannina as one of your partners.

Should you wish to contact the new Rector of the University of Ioannina, the Vice Rectors, or the International Relations Office, you may do so at prytania@cc.uoi.gr, or use the contact information provided below.

Looking forward to continuing and consolidating our cooperation.

The International Relations team.
