ON ARRIVAL

Landing on a different soil, miles away from your home and family can be very disorienting. Nothing can help you better than being prepared for this change. Knowing a little about the city you are going to land in, its customs, people and rules and regulations always helps. Here is a list of things that you should keep in mind, after landing in India.

Customs Formalities:

This is the first thing you'll need to take care of. Students are generally required to make an oral declaration in respect of baggage and foreign currency in their possession as soon as they land in India. They are also required to obtain the Currency Declaration Form from the Customs. They should fill in the Disembarkation Card handed over to them by the airline during the course of the flight.

There are two channels for clearance:

1. Green Channel: For passengers not in possession of any dutiable articles or unaccompanied baggage.

2. Red Channel: For passengers in possession of dutiable articles or unaccompanied baggage or high value articles. High value articles are to be entered on the tourist Baggage Re-Export Form.

If you are on your own, then always go for a pre-paid cab. They are more reliable than the ones you would get outside the airport. Exchange your foreign currency for some Indian rupees. It's better to make all payments in the local currency. Carry handy change. A phone call from a public booth costs Rs. 1 (This requires you to carry the coins.) It's a good idea to purchase a city map.
PRE-DEPARTURE INFORMATION

All persons, except nationals of Bhutan and Nepal, leaving by air, road or rail have to fill an Embarkation Card at the time of departure.

FRRO (Foreigner's Regional Registration Office) De-Registration

Every foreigner who is about to depart finally from India must surrender his Certificate of Registration either to the Registration Officer of the place where he is registered or of the place from which he plans to depart or to the Immigration Officer at the Port / Check post of exit from India.

1. Currency and other articles not to be taken out.
2. Obtain a "No Objection Certificate" from the University. The student has to clear all his dues such as hostel, mess charges, library dues etc. before this certificate is issued.
3. Submitting an application on the appropriate form (i.e. mark sheet and proof of taking the examinations); it will be issued usually a week after the results are out.
4. Submitting a form in the university administration office for the original degree/diploma to be sent home- that can take up to two years.
5. Asking for a letter of recognition/recommendation/testimony from the student's professor(s), if required.
6. Obtaining an Income Tax Clearance Certificate from the concerned Income Tax Office. This is required to be given to the Indian Immigration Authorities at the time of departure. The Income Tax Certificate is given upon presentation of a "No Objection Certificate" from Institute / University.
7. The student should complete the customs' clearance form (obtaining from the Income Tax Office) after closing his bank account.
8. Obtain a written permission or 'no objection' to leave India from FRRO in the FRRO registration booklet.
9. One should report to the airport at least three hours before check-in.
10. Student planning to leave India after completing their studies may kindly contact us for further information.
